One of the last great Egyptian attempts at monument building on a grand scale, the temple dominates the west-bank town, although Edfu's more modest structures crowd in on its enclosure wall. Modern Edfu, a centre for sugar and pottery is a very friendly place.

FAWAZA – RAMADI - DJEBEL SILSILA - BESHIR

Breakfast while sailing to El Ramadi, the old fishing village on the Nile.

Lunch while cruising to Djebel Silsila on the West bank of the river is the Speos of Horemheb, a rock-hen chapel dedicated to pharaoh Horemheb (1323-1295BC) and seven deities, including the local god Sobek.

Kom Ombo temple, standing on a promontory at a bend in the Nile, where in ancient times sacred crocodiles basked in the sun on the river bank, the temple of Kom Ombo is more precisely the dual temple of Sobek (local crocodile god) and Haroeris. The sandstone temple dates from Ptolemaic times.
